BY-LAWS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE

Board of Directors

OF THE

WARSAW FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

FIRST.—The Board of Directors shall have control of all the books, maps, plats, and other property of the Library, subject to the law under which it is organized.

SECOND.—The regular meetings of the Board shall be held on the first Tuesday in each month at seven-thirty o'clock p. m. at such place as the President or Directors may designate. Meetings may also be held at any time on the call of the President or a majority of the Directors. Five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

THIRD.—The annual meeting of the Board for the election of officers and of Librarian shall be the first regular meeting after the first day of July in each year.

FOURTH.—The officers of the Board shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such others as may be found necessary from time to time; all of whom shall be elected by ballot, unless otherwise directed by a majority of the Board at the time of such election. The officers shall serve for one year, or until their successors are chosen and qualified. Vacancies may be filled at any meeting of the Board in the same manner as prescribed for the annual election.

FIFTH.—It shall be the duty of the President, (or in his absence the Vice President,) to preside at all meetings of the Board, sign all warrants drawn on the treasurer by order of the Board, and appoint all committees not otherwise provided for. He shall also sign warrants to pay the regular expense of the Library in the event of the Board failing to hold its regular meeting, and may sign warrants to pay necessary expenses in the interval between meetings of the Board, but shall report his action to the Board at its next regular meeting.

SIXTH.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a record of all proceedings; to issue and countersign all warrants as authorized; conduct the correspondence, and report monthly to the Board.

SEVENTH.—It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all moneys; pay all warrants drawn on him when signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary; keep a regular account of the financial condition of the Board; and make quarterly reports to the Board.

EIGHTH.—The Librarian, under control of the Board of Directors, shall have charge of the rooms, and shall be responsible for the care and safety of the books and other public property contained therein, and for the preservation of order in the rooms. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to label, catalogue and arrange the books on the shelves; to record in the ledger the names of persons to whom books are issued, also the title, catalogue number, and the date of issue and return; to impose fines for the detention or injury of books, and collect the same; to deposit monthly with the Treasurer all moneys received; to notify persons keeping books over time by mail or in person, and collect the expense of notification in addition to the fine; to make report monthly of the condition of the Library, showing the number of visitors, the number of cards issued, the number of books kept over time, and the number of notices sent, and any other information that should be known to the Board; to make an examination of the Library immediately after the last Library day in May, and make full report of the business of the year then ending, and to observe the rules and regulations that may from time to time be made by the Board of Directors.

NINTH.—The standing committees of the Board shall be a Finance Committee, a Committee on Administration, and a Committee on Books and Donations, each committee consisting of three Directors.

The Finance Committee shall have supervision of the following matters: In matters relating to the accounts, to the revenues, to salaries, and to the expenditures of the Board. They shall examine the Librarian's books, accounts and reports, and report to the Board upon the correctness of the same; and as to matters under their supervision shall report to the Board at the last meeting in May.

The Committee on Administration shall have supervision in the following matters: In matters relating to the arrangement for the circulation and use of books and periodicals, and for the needful examination of the library; they shall provide (under instructions of the Board) the necessary labels, stationery, books, etc., for the use of the Librarian, have a general oversight of the Library room, and see that the rules and regulations of the Board are enforced; and as to matters under their supervision shall report to the Board at the last meeting in May.

The Committee on Books and Donations shall have supervision in the following matters: In matters relating to the purchase, exchange and binding of books and periodicals; to pass upon the fitness of any book for circulation; the preparation and printing of catalogues—provided that no book shall be purchased without the approval of the Board of Directors. All donations of books or other property shall be referred to them for their action, and they shall have the power to accept or reject all donations, and they shall report monthly to the Board. And as to matters under their supervision shall report to the Board at the last meeting in May.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS.

Any resident of Warsaw may draw books from the Library by registering his or her name, if known by the Librarian to be a resident. If not so known, by giving security as follows:

WARSAW, ILL.,.....19..

I, the subscriber, hereby certify that..... is a fit person to enjoy the privileges of the Warsaw Free Public Library, and that I will be responsible for the observance by .....of the regulations of the Library; and will make good any injury or loss the Library may sustain from the permission to draw books that may be given in consequence of this certificate. Signed.....

N. B.—The privileges granted, in consequence of this certificate, may be revoked, at pleasure, by the Library or the signer.

Each person entitled to draw books from the Library will be supplied with a card inscribed with his or her name and register number. This card must be produced whenever a book is taken, returned or renewed.

Books may be retained two weeks, and may be once renewed for the same period; but new books, for six months after being placed in the Library, can only be retained one week and cannot be renewed.

Encyclopedias, dictionaries, and other books of reference, and such others as may be unsuited for general circulation, can be used only in the building.

Any person who detains books longer than the regulations permit, shall be fined fifteen cents per week for each volume, and two cents for each mail notice. No book shall be lent to any person who has fines or penalties unsettled, and no book shall be transferred from one person to another.

Writing in books is prohibited, and all injuries to books, beyond reasonable wear, and all losses shall be promptly adjusted to the satisfaction of the Librarian.

Delinquents will be notified through the mail on the first day after their delinquency has occurred; and one week thereafter if the book is not returned. If the book is not returned one month after serving the first notice, the Librarian shall notify the Board at the first meeting thereafter.

Books are supposed to be in good condition when issued, and the last borrower will be held responsible for any mutilation or defacement discovered, unless the same was reported when the book was borrowed. When a book is lost while in the hands of a borrower, he or she shall be required to pay to the Librarian the full price of the volume, or of the set if the volume be one of a set.

The Library shall be open Saturday of each week from 1 to 5:30 p. m., and every evening, except Sunday, from 6:30 to 9 o'clock p. m. Legal holidays excepted.
